

THE SPORTING WORLD

NATION LEAGUE TO OPERATED ON BUSINESS BASIS.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—President Andrew Rube Foster of the Negro National League will call a meeting of the league directors and officers to be held in Chicago the first Thursday in December at which time strenuous effort will be made to place the league on a strict business basis. The biggest item to be handled during this meeting, according to official information, other than the usual election of officers, etc., is the shortening of jumps between cities who are to be represented in the league. The high railroad rates make this necessary.

Circuit to be changed. It is an evident fact that the circuit of 1922 will be changed. It is said by those close to the powers that be that Pittsburgh's financial difficulties caused the rearrangement of schedules in the latter of 1922 and that Cleveland's inability to come forth with balance of their entry money is possibly the reason that they will be missing next year. Again it is claimed Pittsburgh will never be a league town as long as there are two distinct factions warring against each other there, adding more misery to the situation which is not anywhere too good for the reason that there is no Sunday baseball allowed in the smoky city. The same source avers that the fans have kicked on the Cubans being a league club without representing any city. They are satisfied to have them a member of the association but not as a league club. A close survey of the situation leaves Chicago, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Kansas City and Detroit as the only remaining club sure of a berth in 1923.

Robert Simmons, a business man of Omaha, has applied for a franchise in that city. White capitalists are after a franchise in Cincinnati and it is strongly rumored that John Connors has contemplated placing a team in that city. Lark Mills, wealthy Colored oil man in Tulsa, Okla., is also after a franchise in any of the likely cities that may affiliate with the league.

Owing to agreements already in vogue in many of the cities where clubs do not own parks, club officials say, it is impossible to have a playing schedule like the big leagues. However a plan is to be tried out which, it is hoped, will prove satisfactory to all the followers of the game in which a certain number of games between clubs will count in the league race. All over this amount to go down on record as exhibition games.

The meeting in December will be watched with interest. Many clubs owing to the poor showing made during the season just closed will add new players and it is rumored that many of the so called stars on some of the four leading clubs of the 1922 pennant race will be found missing when the call is issued for spring practice.

CHRIS HOUSWOOD TO WORK IN BIG COLLEGE GAMES.

New York City, Nov. 2.—Chris Houswood, who has been refereeing at most of the big basketball games for the past five years, was appointed by the inter-collegiate basketball league here recently. He will also referee at high school games.

WILEY DEFEATS NEW ORLEANS.

Marshall, Texas, Nov. 2.—Wiley University won her second football game of the season last night, defeating New Orleans College by the score of 20 to 7.

The game was a clean demonstration of the gridiron sport from beginning to end. Some very spectacular playing was done by both teams. For the first half, Wiley outplayed the visitors on every hand, making a touchdown in the first six minutes of play. The next touch down came within about eight minutes of the first, by a well executed aerial attack on the part of the Wiley eleven. During the second half Wiley and New Orleans traded touchdowns, but Wiley stiffened in the last half, not only did they check the Wiley drives, but scored a touch down in the third quarter. The rest of the game was a hard fought battle, with the ball in Wiley's territory throughout.

JACK JOHNSON MAY MEET HARRY WILLS.

(P. N. S.)
New York, Nov. 2.—It is reported that Jack Johnson and Harry Wills are likely to be matched for a 15 round battle soon at Madison Square Garden. It is claimed that Tex Rickard is behind the movement. No word from the New York Boxing commission has been heard regarding this proposed match.

LINCOLN VS. WEST VIRGINIA C. I. OCTOBER 27.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 2.—What is expected to be one of the classics of the season will be when the far famed eleven of Lincoln University clashes with the football squad of West Virginia College Institute here on October 27.

Both teams are being ably trained by seasoned coaches this year. Although the loss of Coach Shelburne at Lincoln is being keenly felt. However, the Keystone lads are rounding into fine form and it is expected that they will give the Institute boys the hardest game they have ever had.

In the football world the Lincoln-Institute game is important for several reasons. In the first place no team may be considered of championship caliber unless it succeeds in holding its own against West Virginia. On more than one occasion the team has been defeated by the West Virginians. Then again, since this game must bring forth the best efforts of both teams, it is certain that Wilberforce University, who is on the schedule of both teams later in the season, Howard University and others will have their scouts on hand to get a line on the power of the contenders.

To accommodate the large crowd of alumni and supporters of both the Lincoln University team and West Virginia College Institute the game is to be played here in Charleston instead of at Institute. It is known that the Lincoln alumni who are numerous in various parts of this state, contemplate attending the game in a body. Supporters of both teams, whatever the outcome are confident that it will be a classic.
